THAILAND: THE LANTERN FESTIVAL

OUR PURPOSE

Embark on an unforgettable adventure in the colorful Southeast Asian country of Thailand. The epicenter of traditional culture, the Kingdom of Thailand is known for its lush greenery, crystal blue waters, exceptional cuisine, ancient architecture, and rich cultural traditions. With Discover Corps, you'll explore this multi-faceted country and experience all it has to offer with one of our expert guides.

We'll journey through Northern Thailand to the ancient cities of Chiang Mai and Sukhothai, exploring their ancient history and cultures, visiting beautiful temples and savoring tasty Thai cuisine at buzzing food markets. We'll also venture into the beautiful countryside of Northern Thailand, experiencing the scenic village of Mae Kampong and visiting an Elephant Sanctuary.

In these cities, we'll enjoy the festivities of Loy Krathong, known as Thailand's Festival of Lights. Dating back nearly 800 years, Loy Krathong is one of the biggest festivals in the country and takes place over multiple days. Your Discover Corps Guide will take you behind the scenes in both Sukhothai and Chiang Mai to learn about the festival, make your own krathong (a small boat/basket with candles and flowers), and participate in the festivities alongside locals.

DISCOVER THE LANTERN FESTIVAL

Loy Krathong, known as Thailand's Festival of Lights, dates back nearly 800 years and is one of the biggest festivals in the country. Taking place over one or two days, the people of Thailand celebrate by making krathongs, small lotus-shaped boats traditionally made from banana leaves and decorated with flowers that are then released along waterways as an offering of thanks to the Goddess of Water. The festival also includes firework shows, kathrong building competitions, beauty pageants, and more.

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

KRATHONGS (BOATS/BASKETS)

A krathong is a small lotus-shaped boat usually made from banana leaves, decorated with flowers, and filled with 3 sticks of incense and a lit candle. On the evening of the Loy Krathong festival, people gather around rivers, lakes, and canals to release these baskets in honor of the Goddess of Water.

LANTERNS

Thousands of floating lanterns are released into the sky, symbolizing the lantern bearer letting go of misfortunes from the previous year and wishing good luck and fortune for the coming year. As part of the Discover Corps experience, you will have the opportunity to release lanterns into the sky while listening to the chanting of monks in a truly immersive experience.

TRADITIONAL THAI DANCING

Dance is an important part of Thai culture and plays a prominent role in Loy Krathong festivities. Celebrations throughout the festival can feature many dance forms, including traditional Lanna dances such as the fingernail dance (Fon Lep), candle dance, and circle dance. Dancers wear colorful, traditional Thai costumes and are joined by skilled musicians, often accompanying the dancers on traditional instruments.

FIREWORKS

Along with lanterns and krathongs, immaculate firework displays are one of the most visually stunning aspects of the Loy Krathong experience. Each region's festivities are slightly different, but nightly firework displays remain constant across most celebrations. In Sukhothai, we'll attend a special evening performance of light shows, fireworks, and dance that encompasses the surrounding temples.

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

ELEPHANT SANCTUARY

Elephants are one of the most iconic symbols of Thai wildlife and play an important role in their culture and folklore. However, the population is facing threats from poaching, habitat loss, and the unethical use of elephants in trade and tourism. During this unforgettable excursion to the Elephant Rescue Park you'll have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to feed and bathe the elephants with park volunteers, while learning more about the plight of the elephant and the role this renowned sanctuary plays in education and conservation.

MAE KAMPONG

Just 50 kilometers east of Chiang Mai is the village of Mae Kampong, a small town of <400 people, nestled in the mountains of Northern Thailand. One of the town's most famous attractions is the Flight of the Gibbon zipline, which offers visitors the chance to glide high in the rainforest canopy from one tree to another. The Discover Corps experience includes meeting with locals for a hike and tour of local plantations as well as a special opportunity for a home-cooked lunch with residents and a traditional Thai massage. Flight of the Gibbon is optional.

LOY KRATHONG FESTIVAL

Loy Krathong, known as Thailand's Festival of Lights, dates back nearly 800 years and is one of the biggest festivals in the country, honoring the Goddess of Water and the Buddha. Taking place over one or two days, the people of Thailand celebrate by making krathongs (boats/baskets) at home with friends and family before heading to waterways or temples for religious rituals before releasing their krathongs. The festival also includes firework shows, krathong building competitions, beauty competitions, and more.

YI PENG FESTIVAL

The Yi Peng Lantern Festival also dates back nearly 800 years to the ancient Lanna Kingdom and was traditionally celebrated to mark the end of the monsoon season and beginning of the cool season. Many locals view the festival as a way to release negative energy and wish for good luck and fortune in the coming year, as well as honoring the Buddha. The most popular practice of the festival in the launch of thousands of lanterns into the night sky, but you can also expect to see rituals of worship, decoration contests, parades, traditional Thai dance shows, and live music.
